LIFELONG LEARNING PROGRAMME

LEONARDO

Project title	PEER TO PEER EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGE THROUGH WEB MAGAZINE
Theme	Education through peer-to-peer teaching/learning methodology
Programme	LEONARDO DA VINCI MULTILATERAL PARTNERSHIP
Project objectives	The aim of the project is to exchange/design strategies related to Peer Education (P.E.); to train peer educators; to foreshadow learning/teaching situations in support of the relational/communicative competence of students/teachers especially oriented to the practice of active citizenship; to build a learning/cultural/social environment through a ‘peerZine’ useful to communicate transnationally in the common working language or in the mother tongue thus improving the language competence; to collect experiences for a literature-study on P.E. with the goal of a wider dissemination in each partner's territory
Information about lead partner	The lead partner is 'Istituto Istruzione Superiore Andrea Palladio' in Treviso, Italy, vocational school in the line of construction, communication and graphic studies. Other partners are: Centro Paradoxa, professional association of psychologists, experts in marketing/communication/education and sociologists, based in Treviso, Italy; Het Hogeland College and Alfa College (Warffum and Groningen, The Netherlands); Blackburn College (Blackburn, England)
Searched partners	High schools and vocational training institutes with departments involving a wide range of subjects, but especially graphics for the editing of the webZine, preferably from Finland, Sweden, Denmark, Germany, France, Spain, Portugal, Austria, Norway, Slovenia, Croatia and students from 16 to 18 year old.
